RECEIVED AMID GREAT HILARITY

New Year is Born in Rushville With Bedlam of Noise Produced by Church Bells And Whistles

JUST LIKE ANY OTHER TODAY

New County Officials Receive Friends
in Court House And Pass
Cigars And Apples

The new year, 1916, was born amid more hilarity last midnight in Rushville than any infant in many years. Those who rejoiced in the coming of a leap year seemed to conspire to make five or ten minutes close to midnight an unpleasant time for those who had no other desire than to sleep the old year out and the new year in.

With the sound of the first bell as the last hour of the last day of the year 1915 was rung out by the clock in the court house tower as a signal, the general celebration began all over Rushville. Church bells, factory whistles and folks all joined in the bedlam of noise.

Exhausted bell-ringers, almost overcome with exertion, after a few seconds rest, took up their work relentlessly, which occasioned a few intermissions, but generally when one bell was stopped until the person at the end of the rope could gasp for breath a short while, there were always plenty more to fill in the void. Apparently, some extra bell-ringers were needed.

Some who especially delighted at the death of the old and the birth of the new produced some old firearms that had been handed down as a family heirloom and fired them without regard to the direction the shots took. Persons with loud voices and a tendency to celebrate pierced the night air with terrifying shouts. With all of its glorious reception, 1916 today seemed like any other year.

This was the day for the time-honored custom of swearing off and boarding the water wagon. The trip aboard the wagon was due to start at midnight and the process of falling, so easily acquired and so hard to guard against, was generally only a matter of a few hours away. Statistics on New Year's resolutions were lacking, but best estimates place the number and variety about the same as last year, unless there should be a few additional made by fair maidens who have cherished hopes for years which have fled, but who again have a chance, after four years of waiting.

The old, worn joke about calling your friends on the telephone and asking them if "this is 1916," was revived today and used to some extent on folks from whose memory had been erased all things pertaining to the reception of a new year.

Three new county officials and one who succeeds himself took up their official duties today. The new officials are Chester Peck of Orange township, county recorder; John T. Bowles of Center township, county commissioner and Dr. Lowell M. Green, county coroner. Sheriff Cavitt began his second term with the coming of the new year.

Many friends of the new officials visited the court house today to pay their respects and were treated to apples and cigars. Mr. Bowles will meet with the commissioners for the first time Monday.

GRANT PERMISSION TO ADOPT A CHILD

County Commissioners Allow Family
Named Cummins of Kent, Ill., to Take Legal Possession of Ward.

FIRST CASE OF KIND IN YEARS

For the first time in several years the county commissioners were asked yesterday for permission to adopt a child. The request came from a family named Cummins living at Kent, Ill. The child is Marshall Weevie, one of seven orphans from the same family that were made wards of the county and sent to the Indianapolis Orphans' home. Marshall Weevie is five years old and the petition sent the commissioners stated that the family desired to adopt him as their heir and that his name would henceforth be Charles Therman Cummins.

As the child was a ward of the county the commissioners had to give permission for the adoption and it was made a matter of record. It is the first time in several years that a child has been legally adopted in this county.

PEOPLE OF MAYS SEAL SALES NOT GRANTED RELIEF UP TO LAST YEAR

Beginning Today, Will Receive Mail
Over Star Route From Dunreith
Twice Daily.

L. E. & W. LOSES CONTRACT

Early Petitions and Troubles of Mail
Patrons in Northern Part of County Recalled.

Beginning today, a new mail service for Mays, began which was expected to mark the end of the troubles of that thriving little town. Hereafter Mays will receive mail twice each day by star motor route from Dunreith. Previously the mail for Mays has been carried on the Lake Erie & Western railroad from Rushville.

Mays has had more or less trouble for years getting her mail. By whatever arrangement, the mail has invariably been a day late. The old arrangement was for the Mays mail to be sent to the Rushville office and thence transferred over the L. E. & W. That caused all mail arriving from western points via Indianapolis to be delayed because the morning train into Rushville over the C. I. & W. was late so frequently that mail for the people of Mays and vicinity almost invariably had to lie in the Rushville office for a day.

Several remedies have been tried by the people of that community. They have sought relief from the railroad with a two-train-a-day service, but they never accomplished anything.

A few months ago the people of Raleigh sent a petition to Washington calling on the postoffice department to motorize rural route No. 10 out of Rushville and extend it to a fifty-mile route so that Raleigh and Mays could be served from the Rushville postoffice. This aroused the people of Mays because if such a petition were granted, it would cause the Mays because if such a petition were granted, it would cause the Mays postoffice and rural route No. 25 out of the Mays office to be discontinued.

So far as Rushville mail is concerned, the conditions at Mays and vicinity were much better than formerly because some relief was obtained from the L. E. & W. railroad. The L. E. & W. at one time ran out of Newcastle in the morning and back up in the evening. After some effort on the part of Mays people, the trains were switched and the morning run was made from Rushville to Newcastle and the evening run from Newcastle to Rushville. Mays people were more satisfied with that arrangement in the absence of any better because they live in Rush county and naturally have more business at their county seat than in Newcastle.

Postmaster Hunt received word a few days ago from the department at Washington that the star route would be started January 1 to serve Mays and that service on the L. E. & W. would be discontinued. The star route will leave Dunreith for Mays each morning at 7:15 and each evening at five o'clock. The $1,044.81 appropriated for mail service over the Newcastle-to-Rushville railroad will probably pay the cost of additional traction service and the Mays star route.

Some extensive changes also took effect today in Henry county towns bordering on Rush county.

Partial relief has been given Spiceland for some years by closed service between that office and Knightstown, and reliable, and of two sannap, Errol J. Stoops, 1st, when Shaffer, 2d.

BRITISH LINER IS SUBMARINED

Persia Torpedoed in Mediterranean
With Loss of Life Estimated at
From 75 to 200.

U. S. CONSUL McNEELY ABOARD

Fate of Another American, Charles
H. Grant, is Also Unknown.—
Four Boat Loads Saved.

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)
London, Jan. 1.—The Peninsular and Oriental liner Persia, flying the British flag, was sunk in the Mediterranean by a submarine on Thursday. Dispatches received here today indicated that many lives were lost, estimated at from 75 to 200.

At least two Americans, United States consul to Aden, Arabia, Robert N. McNeely and Charles H. Grant were on board. Their fate is unknown.

Only four boat loads of passengers and members of the crew cleared the sinking liner.

The Persia was enroute from London to Bombay. She was one of the great fleet of liners owned by the Oriental company of London, engaged principally in trade between English ports and the far east.

The Persia displaced 7,974 tons, being only slightly smaller than the Italian liner Ancona, which was sunk by a submarine. She was built in 1900.

Excepting the Lusitania and Arabia, the Persia is the largest British liner to be sent to the bottom of a torpedo if reports that she was submerged are substantiated. She was the first large British passenger carrier sunk in the Mediterranean.

ON WAY TO HIS POST.

(By United Press.)
Washington, Jan. 1.—Robert M. McNeely, United States consul to Aden, Arabia, was on the liner Persia, sunk in the Mediterranean, it was learned at the state department today.

McNeely's home was in Monroe, N. C. He was on his way to his post in the Orient, to which he was recently appointed. Secretary Lansing said he would await official advices concerning the sinking of the Persia, but in the meantime every effort is being made to learn if McNeely lost his life.

WILSON HEARS NEWS.

(By United Press.)
Hot Springs, Va.,—President Wilson was in close touch today with developments regarding the sinking of the British liner Persia. He received reports from Secretary Lansing as fast as they reached the state department. The president refused however, to make any comment.

Mrs. Will McMillin underwent an operation at Sexton's sanatorium Friday and was reported to be resting easy today.

either deep snows or sleet caused interruption.

Quite recently Spiceland made an effort to get the traction line service increased to two mails daily from Newcastle, and to add Dunreith to the service with two mails daily, leaving the one mail daily to and from Knightstown.

About the same time the people of Mays and vicinity asked for the establishment of a Star route between that office and Dunreith, with service twice a day. Each of these petitions seemed to supplement and strengthen the order, and both were granted at the same time, to become effective on the same date, January 1, 1916.

Out of the Newcastle office mails will be dispatched by closed pouch on cars leaving there over the T. H. I & E. at 8:10 a. m. and 4:10 p. m., for Spiceland and Dunreith. Mail from Spiceland, and Dunreith will be received on cars arriving at 8 a. m. and 4 p. m., and from both these points and Knightstown in addition, at 5:20 in the evening.

Amusements

The Gem will show a three reel feature entitled "The Reward" for the program tonight. King Baggot is featured and it is said to be an unusually strong story of an underworld gambling cafe. Society slumbers entangled in a web not of their own weaving make a story of great human interest. On Monday night the 3-reel comedy "Silk Hose and High Pressure" will be shown. It is one of Billie Ritchie's best comedies. Ritchie is assisted by Louise Orth and Henry Bergman.

The Princess will show a two act drama "The God's Redeem" for the first picture tonight. Leah Baird, Maurice Costello and Mary Maurice are featured and it is said to be a thrilling drama. The other picture tonight is a comedy entitled "When Snakeville Struck Oil." On Monday matinee and night the big feature "The Two Orphans" will be shown. "The Two Orphans" has long been known as a classic of the stage. But now, as pictured for William Fox, it is seen in a new form. Theda Bara and Jean Southern are featured. In technique, stage management and skillful use of light the play is said to be wonderful. Many marvelous scenes are shown in this picture and is said to be one of the best of the many Fox production. In addition to Theda Bara and Jean Southern there are William Shay, Herbert Brenon and others.

The attraction at the Shubert Murat, Indianapolis, January 6-7-8th, and popular priced matinee Saturday will be Edith Thayer in "The Peasant Girl" direct from a long run at the Forty-fourth Street Theatre, New York.

"The Peasant Girl" is by Oscar Nedbal, and it ran for two seasons in Berlin. The book is by Leo Stein who wrote, "The Merry Widow," and the staging has been done by Ben-rimo, who has to his credit this season New York's reigning success, "The Blue Paradise."

Miss Thayer, who followed Trentini in "The Peasant Girl" at the Forty-fourth Street Theatre, is remembered here for her engagement in "The Fire Fly," in which she also followed Trentini. She is supported by an admirable company of players. Frank Dshon, the comedian, has been for years at the head of his own company in "The Office Boy" and "Miss Bob White." George Rogers, Stella Thomas, Gus Vaughn, George Gould, Hugh Scott, Constance Grant and Elaine Doree.

Owing to the dearth of musical shows in New York this season, Manager Blumenthal was able to pick a beauty chorus that can sing, and some manly men to accompany them. There will be a large orchestra under the direction of Paul Yartin and it will interpret the numerous popular hits, among them "Listen Dear," the waltz theme of the comedy. The Flirtation Duet between Miss Thayer and Mr. Dshon, "Wanda," "Marching Song," by the male chorus, and many others.

Seats for this attraction can be purchased through the Shubert Murat local representative, Hargrove & Mullin, druggists.

Humane Judges

We hear of the humane treatment of animals, but someone should start a movement to ameliorate the condition of juries that have to remain pent up between four walls five or six days at one time. Judge Gray had the jury which heard the Crawley murder case at Connersville confined since last Monday afternoon at three-thirty o'clock and did not relent enough to discharge the twelve men and allow them to go their several ways in the performance of their daily tasks.

Thrice was the jury re-instructed and as many times and another added it asked for further enlightenment in regard to the law. On one of these occasions, according to the Connersville newspapers, Judge Gray refused to come to the court house because he was suffering with the toothache.

One can imagine—but that hardly seems possible—the mental condition of that handful of men held behind locked doors trying to decide the fate of another. Enough time elapsed in 99 hours for the jurors to have grown dusty on, if not forgotten, a part of the evidence. They were confined so long that they could not give the case their careful consideration due such a situation where a man's future was at stake. Although Judge Gray may have considered the cost of another trial to taxpayers of Fayette county, sometimes there are occasions when thoughts should rise above the dollar mark.

Aside from the inconvenience that the members of that jury suffered, there was the accused man and his plight. The mental anguish he suffered during the trial is slight compared to the weary hours he lived and hoped since the jury was first charged. The hours of waiting and the days of longing for some sign from the jury room must have been terrible. Even a verdict of guilty would seem a relief under the circumstances.

Preventing Diseases

Methods of disease prevention applied have already brought home a lesson. The latest returns of the census bureau, which were recently published show the lowest death rate on record in the United States. According to the figures for the year 1914, the death rate in this country is 13.6 per one thousand of estimated population. In other words, there were only ten deaths in 1914 where there were eleven deaths a decade earlier. The United States is the healthiest place on earth.

Preventive methods will win out if the same progress is made in the future as has been in the past. The statistics are gathered from registration districts, but unfortunately all communities do not register accurately their vital statistics. Twenty-five states and the District of Columbia do, however, and it is from these and thirty-two cities in states that do not that the death returns are gathered from. Who knows, some day we may be able to make grip a fairy story, handed down from one's grandmother, in the days to come.

Internal improvements, such as river and harbor work, public buildings, and reclamation enterprises were always conducted consistently under Republican administration and without the levying of any special taxes. This administration not only levies extraordinary taxes, but curtails or suspends the internal improvements needed in order that government work shall keep pace with the growth of the country. But perhaps the Democrats argue that since their legislation caused a suspension of a large part of private construction, it will be in keeping with the times to suspend public construction also.

President Wilson now admits that the railroads are entitled to some of the things they've been asking in the way of legislation and administration. Yet Mr. Bryan is still lauding Wilson for driving the railroad representatives away from the capital in 1913, when he denounced them as an "insidious lobby" for trying to protect their rights.

President Wilson still urges a ship purchase bill, in spite of the Democratic platform promise that legislation for the upbuilding of the merchant marine shall be "without imposing additional burdens upon the people." Apparently that pledge was merely a "scrap of paper" covered with "molasses to catch flies," and is not to be regarded by a party that uses a platform to get in on, rather than to stand on. But the people will not forget.

CHILD LABOR LAW BECOMES EFFECTIVE

Pennsylvania Act Provides For Education of Young Workers—Stringent Provisions

FARM WORKERS ARE EXEMPT

(By United Press.)

Pittsburgh, Pa., Jan. 1.—A new era dawns in Pennsylvania today for the boy or girl who must toil in mill, factory, store or other industry, when the child labor law enacted becomes operative. The new law contains stringent provisions and severe punishment for their violation. Employers of child labor throughout the state have prepared to comply with the act.

The act provides for the health, safety and welfare of minors. It forbids their employment in certain establishments, restricts their hours of labor, regulates conditions and provides for their education in continuation schools. This last is something of an innovation. It shall be unlawful to employ any minor between 14 and 16 unless the child attends school at least eight hours a week. The school must be approved by the state superintendent of public instruction. Children employed on the farm or in domestic service in private homes are exempt from the provisions of the act.

OLD YEAR HANDS
SON SOME ADVICE

Laertes Nyneteen Sixteen is Told to Pay no Attention to Political
 Menagerie

WARNED OF MANY EVENTS

Roosevelt, Taft, Bryan and Vesuvius
 Are Subject to Eruption at
 Most Any Time

(By United Press.)
 Eternity Hall, Eternity, Dec. 31.—A copy of Polonius Old Year's advice to his son, Laertes Nyneteen Sixteen was presented to the United Press correspondent by Father Time here late today. It reads:

"My son, I stand upon the threshold of Oblivion, wherein I soon shall vanish never to return. My legacy to you is a sadly disorganized world; and I trust that you will faithfully and better administer it than have I. You will have many things to contend with, but take them easy. A menagerie, led by a Donkey, an Elephant, and a Bull Moose will chase the Winged Rooster of Victory up and down your days to the jaws of November. Heed them not. Men with peace missions they don't know what to do with will try to settle a war being fought for reasons no one has discovered. Let them go. The Panama Canal may slide all over South American and Colonial Goethals' conversation will sound like a frequent reference to the Gatun Dam. Let him alone. Cupid may pretend to scorn Romance and be engrossed in Eugenics. Tell him that Europe needs babies. Let the War Dogs chase their own tails until the Peace Dove sheds some of its court-plaster. Then cautiously look about and see what you can do to fix things up. George Bernard Shaw, Theodore Roosevelt, William Howard Taft, Lord Northcliffe, W. J. Bryan and Vesuvius are subject to eruption at any time. There's nothing you can do to stop any of them. Remember that styles, suffrage, the tariff and sample mustaches you have always with you. Do the best you can with all these things and remember that however powerful and able you feel in this your youth, on the 365th day of your reign you will be weary and old and worn, your robes, once white, will be draggled and torn and stained, as flapping rags about your withered legs. Your hand palsied, your step halt, your eyes dim, you will die; and the World will go on. So take it easy, and don't get excited. If you sigh for a Place in the Sun, let it be on a park bench on a summer afternoon. Do these things in calm judgment and you may accomplish more than you expect. Forever affectionately yours,
 THE OLD YEAR,

EIGHT MORE STATES
TO GO DRY TONIGHT

Prohibition Made Great Gains in Past
 Year Bringing Total Dry
 States to 19.

MORE WILL VOTE THIS YEAR

(By United Press.)
 Washington D. C., Dec. 1.—Nine states in the United States will go dry in 1916, eight of them at midnight tonight and one, Virginia, Nov. 1, 1916. The eight are Alabama, South Carolina, Idaho, Arkansas, Colorado, Washington, Oregon and Iowa. This will make a total of 19 dry and 29 wet states of a total of 48. The states heretofore dry and the year each became so, are: Maine, 1851; Kansas, 1880; North Dakota, 1889; Georgia and Oklahoma, 1907; Mississippi and North Carolina, 1908; Tennessee, 1909 and Arizona and West Virginia, 1915. Alaska, Vermont, Indiana, Nebraska and South Dakota will vote on prohibition in 1916. If these four states go dry, practically half the United States will be dry. National prohibition through state prohibition is considered probable within a very few years by leading prohibitionists.

Dr. George Mellon Scheduled to Wed
 Serbian Woman if he Succeeded in Getting There

EMPLOYED IN HOSPITAL THERE

(By United Press.)
 Pittsburgh, Pa., Jan. 1.—If he had good luck after he sailed from New York for Athens some time ago, Dr. Geo. W. Mellon of this city is down in Belgrade, Serbia getting ready in the midst of war for his marriage to Miss Zagorka Cabo, said to be one of the uncorrupted queen of that devastated little land. Dr. Mellon, twice decorated for his work with the American Ambulance in the typhus camps of Serbia, first by Crown Prince Alexander and then by the American Red Cross, has gone back to Serbia with another hospital commission. Dr. Mellon met Miss Cabo in the course of his first hospital work in Serbia. She was not, however, a nurse. Just a visitor. As Dr. Mellon's wife, Miss Cabo will help him in his hospital work, which they expect to continue until the war is ended. Dr. Mellon continued his wooing by letter and cable when he recently was recalled from Serbia by the Red Cross. Miss Cabo's father lost practically all his fortune in the second fall of Belgrade. Dr. Mellon is a graduate of the Medical School of the University of Pennsylvania.

SOME COLLECTION BOX

A certain church has installed a very unique collection box which is said to have been patented by an Oklahoma man. If a member of the congregation drops into it a 25-cent piece or a coin of larger value there is silence. If he contributes a 10-cent piece a bell rings, a 5-cent piece sounds a whistle, and a cent fires a blank cartridge. If any one pretends to be asleep when the box passes, it awakens him with a watchman's rattle, and a kodak takes his picture. The name of the church installing the innovation is withheld for obvious reasons. It is to be hoped that its adoption will not retard church attendance, but will be the means of stimulating contributions to the regular expenses of this worthy institution.

Charles Sherman of this city furnished the music. The boys report that about forty-five couples attended the dance and a most enjoyable time was provided by the Knightstown hosts.

Honoring his twelfth birthday, Vernal Trennepohl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Trennepohl, gave a party yesterday afternoon for a number of his boy friends, each of which brought him an appropriate birthday gift. At the close of a very pleasant afternoon, which was spent in playing games, an excellent chicken dinner was served to the guests. Following this, the guests enjoyed a theatre party at the Princess. The boys present were Robert Gantner, William Wallace, William Sharp, Hayes Readle, Robert and Francis Miller, and Stanley Harrell.

A sumptuous Christmas dinner was the one which Mrs. Mary Ward gave for her children, grand children, and great-grandchildren at the old home near Gowdy. The guests which enjoyed this oyster stew and the other ingredients which made supper complete were Mr. and Mrs. Grant Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hungerford, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Weidner, Watson Miller, Iden Hungerford, Miss Thelma Weidner, J. Immediately after the ceremony, the young couple left at eight o'clock for Westport for a short honeymoon, before returning to their home.

Marked by beautiful floral appointments and charming informality, the second of a series of parties was given by the Misses Bertha Helm and Grace Buell, and Mrs. A. L. The Misses Ione Brown and Mary Parrish took leading parts in the amusing little playlet, "The Same Man." Excellent music was furnished during the evening by DePrez Inlow, violinist and Mrs. Barnard, pianist.

One of the most brilliant affairs in the history of the Phi Delta Kappa was the mid-winter dance which was given in Connorsville Thursday evening complimentary to their grand officers. The Commercial Club parlors were the scene of a formal reception preceding the dance which was given in the Auditorium hall. The dance hall was made especially beautiful by the fraternity colors, which predominated in the decorations. Wide strands of crepe paper, draped from the ceiling, and french baskets, containing red carnations, which hung from the chandeliers, transformed the place into a bower of beauty. Black leather programs on which was embossed the fraternity seal, contained the order of the dances. From behind the bank of ferns, floated the strains of music furnished by Montani brothers five-piece orchestra. One of the features of the evening was the "Phi Delt Glide," a new dance which was demonstrated and danced during the evening. A three course supper was

WATCH PARTIES.

Amid ringing of church bells, parties, and festivities, large and small, for young and old, the New Year, 1916, was ushered in with an unusually warm welcome last night. A few of the gay parties enjoyed were the following:

The special drill team of Mahoning Council number 36, Daughters of Pocahontas, enjoyed a watch party at their hall last evening, when a number of visitors from Lurline Council were also present. The evening was spent in a social way, several special musical numbers being given. Refreshments of sandwiches, salad, pickles, pie, and coffee were served during the evening.

Every moment was enjoyed at the watch party given last evening by Mr. and Mrs. Otto Bussard. The evening's entertainment included several merry rounds of progressive Rook and an elaborate one course luncheon was served at close of evening. Beautiful corsage bouquets were presented to each lady present while the men received chrysanthemums. The guests participating in this enjoyable festivity were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Mahin, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Offutt, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fleehart, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sparks, the Misses Hazel Davis, Jennie Rudell and Hettie Retherford and Don Horning, John Worthington and Frank Priest. The affair was given in honor of Miss Hazel Davis and Don Horning of Indianapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Rich Reed entertained a number of their friends in a watch party last evening, in honor of their house guest, Mrs. Henry of Bedford, Ind.

Miss Marguerite Wolcott was hostess for several of her girl friends when they enjoyed a chafing dish party as they watched the old year out and the new one in.

Another one of the enjoyable watch parties was the one given by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stern at their home in West Ninth street last evening. The evening was spent in playing cards after which the hostess served a very delightful one-course lunch. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Francis Moor, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gunning, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Arbuckle, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Knecht, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hubbard, and Mr. and Mrs. Will Norris.

Ample entertainment was furnished for all those who attended the watch party at the Methodist church last evening. With several intervening social hours following program was given: A sermon by Dr. Nichols of Cincinnati, short talks by Leonard Clark, James Lock, and J. H. Scholl, solos by Miss Norma Smith and Fred Bussard, and trio by Barton Caldwell, O. P. Wamsley and Fred Bussard. Following this a lunch of sandwiches, pickles and coffee were served.

It was a merry young crowd indeed, that gathered at the home of Miss Erema Offutt last evening when she entertained a number of her friends with a very pleasant watch party. The evening was made social and informal with games and contests and at midnight, the hostess served a delicious lunch. The guests were the Misses Esther and Agnes Foster, Belva Phillips, Dean Thompson of Indianapolis, Gladys Newbold, of Indianapolis and Paul Davidson, Morris Howell, of Shelbyville, Everett Oakley, Vernon Spivey, Edward Meredith, Arthur Wiley and Marion Humphrey, of Wabash.

Not a moment lagged at the watch party given by the K. of C.'s last evening for their lady friends. The first part of the evening was given over to several jolly games of cards, and later, the guests enjoyed the dancing which lasted until after the old year had gone out.

Another crowd, which helped to usher the new year in was the gay one which gathered at the Christian church last evening, the members of Rev. and Mrs. Yocum's Sunday school classes. The pitch-in supper was an excellent one, and the evening with it's sociability and informality, was made more so with the games and other forms of amusement.

Miss Katherine Guffin was the hostess to a number of her friends last evening, when they gathered at her home to watch the old year out. The evening, spent socially, was a very pleasant one, and was greatly enjoyed as was the delightful lunch which was served at the close of the evening.

Only four boat loads of passengers and members of the crew cleared the sinking liner.

The Persia was enroute from London to Bombay. She was one of the great fleet of liners owned by the Oriental company of London, engaged principally in trade between English ports and the far east.

The Persia displaced 7,974 tons, being only slightly smaller than the Italian liner Ancona, which was sunk by a submarine. She was built in 1900.

Excepting the Lusitania and Arabic, the Persia is the largest British liner to be sent to the bottom of a torpedo if reports that she was submarined are substantiated. She was the first large British passenger carrier sunk in the Mediterranean.

either deep snows or sleet caused interruption.

Quite recently Spiceland made an effort to get the traction line service increased to two mails daily from Newcastle, and to add Dunreith to the service with two mails daily, leaving the one mail daily to and from Knightstown.

About the same time the people of Mays and vicinity asked for the establishment of a Star route between that office and Dunreith, with service twice a day. Each of these petitions seemed to supplement and strengthen the order, and both were granted at the same time, to become effective on the same date, January 1, 1916.

Out of the Newcastle office mails will be dispatched by closed pouch on cars leaving there over the T. H. 1 & E. at 8:10 a. m. and 4:10 p. m., for Spiceland and Dunreith. Mail from Spiceland, and Dunreith will be received on cars arriving at 8 a. m. and 4 p. m., and from both these points and Knightstown in addition, at 5:20 in the evening.

Amusements

The Gem will show a three reel feature entitled "The Reward" for the program tonight. King Baggot is featured and it is said to be an unusually strong story of an underworld gambling cafe. Society slumbers entangled in a web not of their own weaving make a story of great human interest. On Monday night the 3-reel comedy "Silk Hose and High Pressure" will be shown. It is one of Billie Ritchie's best comedies. Ritchie is assisted by Louise Orth and Henry Bergman.

The Princess will show a two act drama "The God's Redeem" for the first picture tonight. Leah Baird, Maurice Costello and Mary Maurice are featured and it is said to be a thrilling drama. The other picture tonight is a comedy entitled "When Snakeville Struck Oil." On Monday matinee and night the big feature "The Two Orphans" will be shown. "The Two Orphans" has long been known as a classic of the stage. But now, as pictured for William Fox, it is seen in a new form. Theda Bara and Jean Southern are featured. In technique, stage management and skillful use of light the play is said to be wonderful. Many marvelous scenes are shown in this picture and is said to be one of the best of the many Fox production. In addition to Theda Bara and Jean Southern there are William Shay, Herbert Brenon and others.

The attraction at the Shubert Murat, Indianapolis, January 6-7-8th, and popular priced matinee Saturday will be Edith Thayer in "The Peasant Girl" direct from a long run at the Forty-fourth Street Theatre, New York.

"The Peasant Girl" is by Oscar Nedbal, and it ran for two seasons in Berlin. The book is by Leo Stein who wrote, "The Merry Widow," and the staging has been done by Ben-rimo, who has to his credit this season New York's reigning success, "The Blue Paradise."

Miss Thayer, who followed Trentini in "The Peasant Girl" at the Forty-fourth Street Theatre, is remembered here for her engagement in "The Fire Fly," in which she also followed Trentini. She is supported by an admirable company of players. Frank Dession, the comedian, has been for years at the head of his own company in "The Office Boy" and "Miss Bob White," George Rogers, Stella Thomas, Gus Vaughn, George Gould, Hugh Scott, Constance Grant and Elaine Doree.

Owing to the dearth of musical shows in New York this season, Manager Blumenthal was able to pick a beauty chorus that can sing, and some manly men to accompany them. There will be a large orchestra under the direction of Paul Yartin and it will interpret the numerous popular hits, among them "Listen Dear," the waltz theme of the comedy. The Flirtation Duet between Miss Thayer and Mr. Dession. "Wanda," "Marching Song," by the male chorus, and many others.

Seats for this attraction can be purchased through the Shubert Murat local representative, Hargrove & Mullin, druggists.

Humane Judges

We hear of the humane treatment of animals, but someone should start a movement to ameliorate the condition of juries that have to remain pent up between four walls five or six days at one time. Judge Gray had the jury which heard the Crawley murder case at Connersville confined since last Monday afternoon at three-thirty o'clock and did not relent enough to discharge the twelve men and allow them to go their several ways in the performance of their daily tasks.

Thrice was the jury re-instructed and as many times and another added it asked for further enlightenment in regard to the law. On one of these occasions, according to the Connersville newspapers, Judge Gray refused to come to the court house because he was suffering with the toothache.

One can imagine—but that hardly seems possible—the mental condition of that handful of men held behind locked doors trying to decide the fate of another. Enough time elapsed in 99 hours for the jurors to have grown dusty on, if not forgotten, a part of the evidence. They were confined so long that they could not give the case their careful consideration due such a situation where a man's future was at stake. Although Judge Gray may have considered the cost of another trial to taxpayers of Fayette county, sometimes there are occasions when thoughts should rise above the dollar mark.

Aside from the inconvenience that the members of that jury suffered, there was the accused man and his plight. The mental anguish he suffered during the trial is slight compared to the weary hours he lived and hoped since the jury was first charged. The hours of waiting and the days of longing for some sign from the jury room must have been terrible. Even a verdict of guilty would seem a relief under the circumstances.

Preventing Diseases

Methods of disease prevention applied have already brought home a lesson. The latest returns of the census bureau, which were recently published show the lowest death rate on record in the United States. According to the figures for the year 1914 the death rate in this country is 13.6 per one thousand of estimated population. In other words, there were only ten deaths in 1914 where there were eleven deaths a decade earlier. The United States is the healthiest place on earth.

Preventive methods will win out if the same progress is made in the future as has been in the past. The statistics are gathered from registration districts, but unfortunately all communities do not register accurately their vital statistics. Twenty-five states and the District of Columbia do, however, and it is from these and thirty-two cities in states that do not that the death returns are gathered from. Who knows, some day we may be able to make grip a fairy story, handed down from one's grandmother, in the days to come!

Internal improvements, such as river and harbor work, public buildings, and reclamation enterprises were always conducted consistently under Republican administration and without the levying of any special taxes. This administration not only levies extraordinary taxes, but curtails or suspends the internal improvements needed in order that government work shall keep pace with the growth of the country. But perhaps the Democrats argue that since their legislation caused a suspension of a large part of private construction, it will be in keeping with the times to suspend public construction also.

President Wilson now admits that the railroads are entitled to some of the things they've been asking in the way of legislation and administration. Yet Mr. Bryan is still lauding Wilson for driving the railroad representatives away from the capital in 1913, when he denounced them as an "insidious lobby" for trying to protect their rights.

President Wilson still urges a ship purchase bill, in spite of the Democratic platform promise that legislation for the upbuilding of the merchant marine shall be "without imposing additional burdens upon the people." Apparently that pledge was merely a "scrap of paper" covered with "molasses to catch flies," and is not to be regarded by a party that uses a platform to get in on, rather than to stand on. But the people will not forget.

CHILD LABOR LAW BECOMES EFFECTIVE

Pennsylvania Act Provides For Education of Young Workers—Stringent Provisions FARM WORKERS ARE EXEMPT

(By United Press.)

Pittsburgh, Pa., Jan. 1.—A new era dawns in Pennsylvania today for the boy or girl who must toil in mill, factory, store or other industry, when the child labor law enacted becomes operative. The new law contains stringent provisions and severe punishment for their violation. Employers of child labor throughout the state have prepared to comply with the act.

The act provides for the health, safety and welfare of minors. It forbids their employment in certain establishments, restricts their hours of labor, regulates conditions and provides for their education in continuation schools. This last is something of an innovation. It shall be unlawful to employ any minor between 14 and 16 unless the child attends school at least eight hours a week. The school must be approved by the state superintendent of public instruction. Children employed on the farm or in domestic service in private homes are exempt from the provisions of the act.

OLD YEAR HANDS
GON SOME ADVICE

Laertes Nyneteen Sixteen is Told to Pay no Attention to Political
 Menagerie

WARNED OF MANY EVENTS

Roosevelt, Taft, Bryan and Vesuvius
 Are Subject to Eruption at
 Most Any Time

(By United Press.)
 Eternity Hall, Eternity, Dec. 31.—A copy of Polonius Old Year's advice to his son, Laertes Nyneteen Sixteen was presented to the United Press correspondent by Father Time here late today. It reads:

"My son, I stand upon the threshold of Oblivion, wherein I soon shall vanish never to return. My legacy to you is a sadly disorganized world; and I trust that you will faithfully and better administer it than have I. You will have many things to contend with, but take them easy. A menagerie, led by a Donkey, an Elephant, and a Bull Moose will chase the Winged Rooster of Victory up and down your days to the jaws of November. Heed them not. Men with peace missions— they don't know what to do with will try to settle a war being fought for reasons no one has discovered. Let them go. The Panama Canal may slide all over South American and Colonial Goethals' conversation will sound like a frequent reference to the Gatun Dam. Let him alone. Cupid may pretend to scorn Romance and be engrossed in Eugenics. Tell him that Europe needs babies. Let the War Dogs chase their own tails until the Peace Dove sheds some of its court-plaster. Then cautiously look about and see what you can do to fix things up. George Bernard Shaw, Theodore Roosevelt, William Howard Taft, Lord Northcliffe, W. J. Bryan and Vesuvius are subject to eruption at any time. There's nothing you can do to stop any of them. Remember that styles, suffrage, the tariff and sample mustaches you have always with you. Do the best you can with all these things and remember that however powerful and able you feel in this your youth, on the 365th day of your reign you will be weary and old and worn, your robes, once white, will be dragged and torn and stained, as flapping rags about your withered legs. Your hand palsied, your step halt, your eyes dim, you will die; and the World will go on. So take it easy, at I don't get excited. If you sigh for a Place in the Sun, let it be on a park bench on a summer afternoon. Do these things in calm judgment and you may accomplish more than you expect.
 Forever affectionately yours,
 THE OLD YEAR,

The eight are Alabama, South Carolina, Idaho, Arkansas, Colorado, Washington, Oregon and Iowa. This will make a total of 19 dry and 29 wet states of a total of 48. The states heretofore dry and the year each became so, are: Maine, 1951; Kansas, 1880; North Dakota, 1889; Georgia and Oklahoma, 1907; Mississippi and North Carolina, 1908; Tennessee, 1909 and Arizona and West Virginia, 1915. Alaska, Vermont, Indiana, Nebraska and South Dakota will vote on prohibition in 1916. If these four states go dry, practically half the United States will be dry. National prohibition through state prohibition is considered probable within a very few years by leading prohibitionists.

Dr. George Mellon Scheduled to Wed
 Serbian Woman if he Succeeded in Getting There

EMPLOYED IN HOSPITAL THERE

(By United Press.)
 Pittsburgh, Pa., Jan. 1.—If he had good luck after he sailed from New York for Athens some time ago, Dr. Geo. W. Mellon of this city is down in Belgrade, Serbia getting ready in the midst of war for his marriage to Miss Zagorka Cabo, said to be one of the unrequited queen of that devastated little land. Dr. Mellon, twice decorated for his work with the American Ambulance in the typhus camps of Serbia, first by Crown Prince Alexander and then by the American Red Cross, has gone back to Serbia with another hospital commission. Dr. Mellon met Miss Cabo in the course of his first hospital work in Serbia. She was not, however, a nurse. Just a visitor. As Dr. Mellon's wife, Miss Cabo will help him in his hospital work, which they expect to continue until the war is ended. Dr. Mellon continued his wooing by letter and cable when he recently was recalled from Serbia by the Red Cross. Miss Cabo's father lost practically all his fortune in the second fall of Belgrade. Dr. Mellon is a graduate of the Medical School of the University of Pennsylvania.

SOME COLLECTION BOX

A certain church has installed a very unique collection box which is said to have been patented by an Oklahoma man. If a member of the congregation drops into it a 25-cent piece or a coin of larger value there is silence. If he contributes a 10-cent piece a bell rings, a 5-cent piece sounds a whistle, and a cent fires a blank cartridge. If any one pretends to be asleep when the box passes, it awakens him with a watchman's rattle, and a kodak takes his picture. The name of the church installing the innovation is withheld for obvious reasons. It is to be hoped that its adoption will not retard church attendance, but will be the means of stimulating contributions to the regular expenses of this worthy institution.

PHI DELTA KAPPA

One of the most brilliant affairs in the history of the Phi Delta Kappa was the mid-winter dance which was given in Connerville Thursday evening complimentary to their grand officers. The Commercial Club parlors were the scene of a formal reception preceding the dance which was given in the Auditorium hall. The dance hall was made especially beautiful by the fraternity colors, which predominated in the decorations. Wide strands of crepe paper, draped from the ceiling, and french baskets, containing red carnations, which hung from the chandeliers, transformed the place into a bower of beauty. Black leather programs on which was embossed the fraternity seal, contained the order of the dances. From behind the bank of ferns, floated the strains of music furnished by Montani brothers five-piece orchestra. One of the features of the evening was the "Phi Delt Glide," a new dance which was demonstrated and danced during the evening. A three course supper was served at the close of the ball, by Harry Williams at his cafe. A number of local Phi Deltis were among the dancers.

WATCH PARTIES.

Amid ringing of church bells, parties, and festivities, large and small, for young and old, the New Year, 1916, was ushered in with an unusually warm welcome last night. A few of the gay parties enjoyed were the following:

The special drill team of Mahoning Council number 36, Daughters of Pocahontas, enjoyed a watch party at their hall last evening, when a number of visitors from Lurline Council were also present. The evening was spent in a social way, several special musical numbers being given. Refreshments of sandwiches, salad, pickles, pie, and coffee were served during the evening.

Every moment was enjoyed at the watch party given last evening by Mr. and Mrs. Otto Bussard. The evening's entertainment included several merry rounds of progressive Rook and an elaborate one course luncheon was served at close of evening. Beautiful corsage bouquets were presented to each lady present while the men received chrysanthemums. The guests participating in this enjoyable festivity were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Mahin, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Offutt, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Meehart, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sparks, the Misses Hazel Davis, Jennie Rudell and Hettie Retherford and Don Horning, John Worthington and Frank Priest. The affair was given in honor of Miss Hazel Davis and Don Horning of Indianapolis.

Miss Marguerite Wolcott was hostess for several of her girl friends when they enjoyed a chatting dish party as they watched the old year out and the new one in.

Another one of the enjoyable watch parties was the one given by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stern at their home in West Ninth street last evening. The evening was spent in playing cards after which the hostess served a very delightful one-course lunch. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Francis Moor, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gunning, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Arbuckle, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Knecht, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hubbard, and Mr. and Mrs. Will Norris.

Ample entertainment was furnished for all those who attended the watch party at the Methodist church last evening. With several intervening social hours following program was given: A sermon by Dr. Nichols of Cincinnati, short talks by Leonard Clark, James Lock, and J. H. Scholl, solos by Miss Norma Smith and Fred Bussard, and trio by Burton Caldwell, O. P. Wamsley and Fred Bussard. Following this a lunch of sandwiches, pickles and coffee were served.

It was a merry young crowd indeed, that gathered at the home of Miss Erema Offutt last evening when she entertained a number of her friends with a very pleasant watch party. The evening was made social and informal with games and contests and at midnight, the hostess served a delicious lunch. The guests were the Misses Esther and Agnes Foster, Belya Phillips, Dean Thompson of Indianapolis, Gladys Newbold, of Indianapolis and Paul Davidson, Morris Howell, of Shelbyville, Everett Oakley, Vernon Spivey, Edward Meredith, Arthur Wiley and Marion Humphrey, of Wabash.

Not a moment lagged at the watch party given by the K. of C.'s last evening for their lady friends. The first part of the evening was given over to several jolly games of cards, and later, the guests enjoyed the dancing which lasted until after the old year had gone out.

Another crowd, which helped to usher the new year in was the gay one which gathered at the Christian church last evening, the members of Rev. and Mrs. Yocum's Sunday school classes. The pitch-in supper was an excellent one, and the evening with its sociability and informality, was made more so with the games and other forms of amusement.

Miss Katherine Guffin was the hostess to a number of her friends last evening, when they gathered at her home to watch the old year out. The evening, spent socially, was a very pleasant one, and was greatly enjoyed as was the delightful lunch which was served at the close of the evening.
